

It would not be in the best interest of the American public to allow more media concentration by a few owners. The proposal before you does this and should be reconsidered. The more owners of America's media the more different points of view will be open to Americans. Please steer clear of establishing any rules that foster media ownership concentration.

Thank you,

Dr. William Shea